

A treat for you is hidden somewhere inside our home.

To find out where it lies,
you must solve this little poem!

Way to go, you solved the clue!

But you are far from done.

Solve the next one, and keep going.

The fun has just begun!

This is where we put our food
to get it ready to eat.
But be careful not to burn yourself -
it packs a lot of heat!

My tummy hurts, my head feels hot,
I've been feeling sick all day!
Where can I go to find something to make it go away?

I have 4 wheels and lots of seats.
I can move real fast or slow.
Just give me gas and I'll take you anywhere you want to go!

I'm really big and very heavy.
I hold your things for you.
Pants, shirts, socks - you name it!
That's what I'm made to do!
